Privacy Policy

Building Bridges Coalition is committed to respecting the privacy of online visitors and pledges its best efforts to that end. In general, you can visit Building Bridges Coalition on the Web without telling us who you are or revealing anything about yourself.

Our Web server automatically recognizes each visitor's domain name, but does not automatically collect personally identifiable information. There are times, however, such as when you place a product order or register for an event, that we will collect specific information. If you choose to provide personally identifiable data, you may receive future information from us--by mail, electronically or by telephone--advising you of upcoming Building Bridges Coalition events, services, new products, or volunteer and support opportunities. If you do not wish to be contacted with such information, please let us know by writing or sending e-mail to the addresses at the top of this page. Those who provide personally identifiable data also may receive information from other reputable organizations. You can, however, have your name put on our do-not-share list by e-mailing or writing to us at the addresses above. Please make sure to provide your full name and address for exclusion from "future contact" or "share" lists.

A "cookie" is a small piece of data stored on your computer's hard drive when you visit our Web site. Building Bridges Coalition uses cookies to analyze our Web site's overall traffic patterns and improve our visitors' online experience. We do not use cookies to store or collect any personal information. Many browsers provide an option to block or remove cookies. You can visit globalbrigades.org successfully while blocking Building Bridges Coalition cookies, but leaving cookies enabled in your browser will help us to improve our site's usability and effectiveness.

In order to provide a more comprehensive and useful site, the Building Bridges Coalition Web site contains links to other Web sites. Building Bridges Coalition is not responsible for the privacy practices of these sites.

Credit Card Information

Building Bridges Coalition has contracted the services of a banking partner to process credit card donations submitted online. Our banking partner's secured server encrypts your credit card information so that it may be safely transmitted over the Web. Your credit card information will not be released by Building Bridges Coalition or its banking partner to any other party.

Feedback Invited

Again, thank you for visiting the Web site of Building Bridges Coalition. We welcome your feedback.
